A membership at Huntsman Springs offers you four seasons of enjoyment in Teton Valley. During the summer, we welcome you to enjoy the world-class golf on the award-winning David McLay Kidd course, fly fishing on our seven private lakes, as well as a full calendar of wellness and social activities at the club.

The club was designed for the enjoyment of families. Huntsman Springs lays claim to the highest rated golf course in the Rockies by many national publications. Our food and beverage has been described as the best in the region, our fly fishing world renowned, and our social events are second to none. As a member, you have access to all these wonderful amenities and are welcomed into the Huntsman Springs family.

Huntsman Springs is now offering membership opportunities which will allow a wider range of individuals to enjoy all of our amenities. If you would like to learn more about the various options and benefits of membership at Huntsman Springs, please contact us for additional details.
